

Week 37 Upper Grammar Assignment Sheet

	Monday 6/8	Tuesday 6/9	Wednesday 6/10	Thursday 6/11
Grammar	Ch. 23 Intro sentences on board	Ch. 23 Practice sentences (thin book)
Writing	Please bring completed creative writing assignment (1900's) to class. Author's Day Party! Students may bring anything they've written to share with the class. Each will have a few minutes to read aloud. Bring bite-sized servings of cheese to pass around as a snack, if desired.	Bring Family Tree Projects to class Wednesday, so they can be displayed at the year-end picnic. Kindly gather and bring other projects from this quarter to be displayed at the picnic: African fabric and masks, Plains Indians coup sticks, lapbooks, etc. We will also display projects which are currently decorating the classroom.	Summer Birthdays Party! We'll honor classmates who have summer birthdays. Mrs. Bona will bring Rice Krispie Treats.
Literature	Sarah, Plain and Tall , continue movie		Sarah, Plain and Tall , finish movie
HISTORY	REVIEW Games Assemble individual Civil War A to Z books. If you would like a particular paper or fabric for the book's hard cover, please bring a piece at least 16x 24". Bring lapbooks to class.	In your presidents book, read about William McKinley's first term, paying close attention to accounts of Theodore Roosevelt. Practice reciting The Gettysburg Address and A New Colossus. You'll be presenting both at the year-end picnic.	REVIEW Games Finish assembling individual Civil War A to Z books. Complete lapbooks.	